

Contents

Dedication.....	iii
Foreword.....	v
Acknowledgments.....	vii
Contents	ix
Racewalker Profiles	xi
Introduction.....	1
Chapter One: Why Should Baby Boomers Racewalk?.....	7
Highly Aerobic.....	7
Low Impact	9
Competition If You Want It	12
The Purpose of This Book.....	12
Chapter Two: What Is Racewalking?	17
The Two-Part Definition	17
The Contact-with-the-Ground Portion of the Definition.....	18
The Straightened-Leg Portion of the Definition	21
A Short History of Racewalking.....	23
Chapter Three: What Equipment Do You Need?	31
Chapter Four: What Do You Need to Know about Technique?.....	37
Short Stride in Front, Long Stride in Back.....	41
Toe of Shoe Up	42
Hip Motion	44
Foot Placement.....	47
Arm Motion.....	49
Posture.....	54
Putting It All Together	55
Practice, Practice, Practice	57

Chapter Five: Where Can You Walk?	61
Parks, Streets and Sidewalks	63
Alone or with Company	64
Chapter Six: How Can You Improve?	69
Training	70
Stretching	73
Drills.....	78
Strength Training.....	79
Practice, Practice, Practice	80
Other Resources	80
Chapter Seven: Are You Ready for Some Competition?	85
Finding Events for Competition.....	87
Avoiding Disqualification.....	91
Epilogue: What Is in Our Future?.....	96
Appendix – Online Resources	98